

HAGGADOT FOR PASSOVER

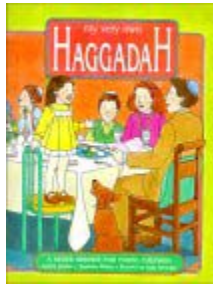

Make your Passover Seder special by using a Haggadah that is interestingly written and beautifully illustrated. Below are some of our favorites.

The Passover Haggadah, with a new translation and a detailed, provocative commentary. This is the official Haggadah of the Conservative Movement. Clear instructions and explanations take the reader step by step through all of the Seder ritual. The text encourages the active participation of everyone at the Seder table. Impressive artwork in full color by Israeli artist Dan Reisinger.

On sale in the Beth Yeshurun Sisterhood Gift Shop, or at local bookstores.

The ultimate children's Haggadah. A child's first seder service, with the story of Passover, an explanation of holiday symbols, seder blessings, and songs. Plus recipes, craft ideas, and pictures to color. Over 2 million in print!

A Different Night is a family participation haggadah for all Jewish denominations and levels of knowledge that offers stories, discussions, explanations, readings, songs, activities and games. The art work is eclectic from Chagall, Rembrandt and Ben Shahn to cartoons. It features 20 illustrations of the 4 children including the 4 daughters. The language is accessible and directions complete and it offers both a short and a long seder guaranteed to be fun and intellectually stimulating for adults, teenagers and children. Recommended by rabbis of all denominations, it has become an enormous best seller. The enormous variety of activities offered allow one to tailor made seder so that every year produce new Jewish memories.

New low-cost family edition now on sale in the Beth Yeshurun Sisterhood Gift Shop, or at local bookstores.